Job Description

St. Aloysius' College is a Roman Catholic Boys secondary school with a Mixed Sixth Form in the borough of Islington. It has provided the local community with over 140 years of high-quality education. The College is currently going through a phase of rapid improvement and we are looking to recruit staff to help us deliver an outstanding education to all of our pupils.

Our focus on excellence and high expectations of all. Staff development is a priority on our journey to Outstanding. St. Aloysius' College are looking to appoint a fully qualified Teacher of Science to teach across the full age and ability range. ECT's are welcome to apply. You will be joining a progressive and dynamic department that achieves strong outcomes in both GCSE and A Levels.

At KS5, we are offering all Sciences: Physics, Chemistry and Biology.

We can offer:

- The opportunity to teach enthusiastic, motivated and respectful students
- Supportive, hardworking Governors and colleagues who care passionately about our school and the local community
- Future career development and a well structured CPD programme
- A well organised ECT programme

We are looking for someone who will be a highly effective classroom practitioner

- Be passionate about Science Education
- Communicate effectively with all staff, students and parents
- Raise aspirations, expectations and achievement of all students regardless of ability
- Be a team player and contribute to the further development of the Science department
- Teach Science at all key stages.

Our NQT programme is excellent and we welcome applications from new teachers.

St. Aloysius' College is committed to Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

This appointment is subject to an enhanced DBS check and positive references.

How to apply: An application form is available via the school's website <http://www.sta.islington.sch.uk/>. Please email your completed application to Debbie McDonagh mcdonagh.d@sta.islington.sch.uk
