Job Description

St. Aloysius' College is a high performing Roman Catholic Boys secondary school with a Mixed Sixth Form in the London borough of Islington. It has a rich History of providing over 140 years of high-quality education to the local community. The College is on a journey to Outstanding having received a "Good" Section 5 OFSTED Report in June 2022. We want to recruit staff to help us deliver an outstanding education to all of our pupils.

Our focus is on excellence and high expectations of all. Staff development is a priority too on our journey to Outstanding. We are looking to appoint a fully qualified Teacher of Science to teach across the full age and ability range, including either Biology or Chemistry at A-Levels. ECT's are welcome to apply. You will be joining a progressive and dynamic department that achieves strong outcomes in both GCSE and A Levels.

At KS5, we offer: Physics, Chemistry and Biology.

We can offer:

- The opportunity to teach enthusiastic, motivated and respectful students as recognised by OFSTED (June 2022)
- Supportive, hardworking Governors and colleagues who care passionately about our school and our pupils.
- Future career development and a well-structured CPD programme
- A well organised ECT programme

We are looking for someone who will be a highly effective classroom practitioner

- Be passionate about Science Education
- Communicate effectively with all staff, students and parents
- Raise aspirations, expectations and achievement of all students regardless of ability
- Be a team player and contribute to the further development of the Science department
- Teach Science at all key stages.

Our ECT programme is excellent and we welcome applications from ECT's.

St. Aloysius' College is committed to Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

This appointment is subject to an enhanced DBS check and Good references.

How to apply: An application form is available via the school's website <http://www.sta.islington.sch.uk/>. Please email your completed application to Pooja Kotwani kotwani.p@sta.islington.sch.uk
