SEND Information Report

We are a fully inclusive boys' Catholic school which ensures that all pupils achieve their potential, personally, socially, emotionally and academically in all areas of the curriculum (regardless of their gender, ethnicity, social background, sexual identity, physical ability or educational needs).

This document is intended to give you information regarding the ways in which we ensure we support all of our pupils including those with SEN and disabilities, in order that they can reach their full potential. It may not list every skill, resource and technique we employ in order to achieve this, as these are continually developed and used to modify our provision to meet the changing requirements for individual children.

Children are identified as having SEN when a difficulty or disability makes learning significantly more difficult for them and their progress has slowed or stopped. If this occurs, we have Pupil Profiles which summarise and inform staff about the needs of the child, and we put additional provision in place.

Other useful documents such as our SEND policy are available on the school website and the Islington Local Offer is available through this link <https://www.islington.gov.uk/children-and-families/send-local-offer>. If you would like further information about what we offer here at St Aloysius' then please do not hesitate to contact us directly.

Please see below the St Aloysius School SEND Offer.

How do we identify children and young people with SEND and assess their needs?	Identification of students with SEND results from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Information from either the primary or previous school which is passed to the SEND team. • The school's own baseline assessments (CATs scores). • KS2 SATs scores. • Progress based on data collections. • Teacher referrals. • Head of Year referrals. • Parent referrals. • Pupil self-referrals. • Referral from an outside agency.
What is the name and contact details of our SENCo?	Helen Flavin flavin.h@sta.islington.sch.uk
How do we consult with parents of children with SEND and involve them in their child's education?	We encourage our parents to contact and speak to us about their concerns. We believe that children do better when the school and parents work alongside each other. We have a series of pre-planned events where we can meet you and discuss your child's Pupil Profile, targets and progress. These include a special SEN parents evening which we will invite you to as well as parents' consultation evenings and Annual Review meetings for children with an EHCP. We may also invite you to a special meeting if we have concerns or we think we should make a referral to another organisation or agency beyond the school.
How do we consult young people with SEND and involve them in their education?	Conversations occur in an informal way on a daily basis between students and their teaching assistants and teachers – students often find these less formal routes less intimidating. More formal discussions happen with the students at parents' evenings (both the SEN one and the standard year group parent evenings) and during the writing of the student profiles. All students are provided with their end of year target grades, their grades after each assessment point and they are also provided with target comments which they are expected to respond to.

	and interventions are used to meet the needs of all SEND students. This takes place on request. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Subject teachers are encouraged to develop their own subject specific expertise by attending relevant courses and/or seeking out information. • Outside specialists (e.g. Speech and Language Therapist) working alongside school staff, giving specific advice and guidance and quality assuring provision.
How do we evaluate the effectiveness of the provision made for children and young people with SEND?	We believe that regular and systematic monitoring and evaluation is vital to ensure effective SEND provision. We do this in several ways including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regular observations and learning walks, including learning walks to observe the learning of pupils with SEND by the SENCo • Analysis of the attainment and achievement of different groups of students with SEND • Success rates against individual of targets • Post 16 destinations of young people with SEND • Scrutiny of teacher's planning and student's work • The views of parents and the students • Monitoring by the governing body/SEND governor • Maintenance of assessment records – numeracy, reading and spelling ages etc. – that indicate progress over time for students involved in small group / individual intervention • Departmental reviews of the progress of SEND students • A department action plan and a whole school Professional Development Plan for SEN which are regularly reviewed • Monitoring procedures for identification and assessment of and provision for students with SEND undertaken within a department structure which highlights areas of responsibility and accountability • The use of appraisal to highlight areas of development for staff which is regularly reviewed. • Reviews of the SEND department by professionals outside of the school e.g. OFSTED
How do we ensure that children and young people with SEN have access to the same activities available to all children?	We make every effort to include all pupils in school trips. If an individual risk assessment is required, we will write this to ensure that everyone is fully included. We also help prepare children for any changes in their school day, such as school trips, awards ceremonies and sports day.

St Aloysius' College: SEND Information Report 2018

What arrangements are there for listening to the views of children and young people with SEND?	We strengthen the relationship between the students and staff through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • School council meetings • Regular parent and student meetings with SEND staff • Discussions about the content of the student profiles • Key teaching assistants attached to year groups for informal discussions • Whole school PHSE lessons
How does the school involve other bodies, including health and social care bodies, local authority support services and voluntary sector organisations, to support children and young people with SEND and their families?	The school aims to work in partnership with other agencies to provide effective support based on the needs of the student. Such specialist services include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Educational Psychologists • Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS); • Specialist teachers or support services for learning and behaviour (New River College Outreach Team, the Bridge, VI and HI services) • Therapists (including speech and language therapists, occupational therapists and physiotherapists) • Social Care and family support Services e.g. Families First We also arrange Multi-agency meetings to secure effective expert support from outside agencies in assessing more complex cases and making provision for the most vulnerable students.
What arrangements are there for handling complaints from parents of children with SEN about the provision made at the school?	We seek to promote an active partnership with parents/guardians and to involve them fully at every stage. Most concerns and complaints can quite properly be resolved on an informal basis. Formal complaints are resolved through our complaints process. Our complaints process is detailed in our Complaints Policy which can be found on the school website http://www.sta.islington.sch.uk/
